Gal. 3:17 What I am saying is this: the Law, which came a four hundred and thirty years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.

Rom. 5:20 But law came in,
with the result that the trespass multiplied; but where sin increased, grace abounded
all the more,
Rom. 5:21 so that, just as sin
exercised dominion in death, so grace might also exercise dominion through justification leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rom. 6:1 ¶ What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound?

Rom. 6:2 By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it?

Rom. 6:3 Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

Rom. 6:4 Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

Rom. 6:5 ¶ For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Rom. 6:6 We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

Rom. 6:7 For whoever has died is freed from sin.

Rom. 6:8 But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

Rom. 6:9 We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

Rom. 6:10 The death he died,
he died to sin, once for all;
but the life he lives, he lives to God.

Rom. 6:11 So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Rom. 6:12 ¶ Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions.

Rom. 6:13 No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness.

Rom. 6:14 For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

1Cor. 1:30 He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption,

Eph. 2:5 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—

Eph. 2:6 and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ
Jesus,

Rom. 6:15 ¶ What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!

Rom. 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.
