"To ALL God's Beloved In Rome...& the Desert," Concluded

Rom. 13:8 ¶ Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.

....
Rom. 13:10 Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

....
Rom. 13:14 Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Rom. 13:13 Let us
live honorably as in
the day, not in
reveling and
drunkenness, not in
debauchery and
licentiousness, not
in quarreling and
jealousy.

Rom. 14:1 ¶

Welcome those who are weak in
faith, but not for
the purpose of
quarreling over
opinions.

Rom. 14:2 Some
believe in eating
anything, while
the weak eat only
vegetables.

Rom. 14:3 Those
who eat must not
despise those who
abstain, and those
who abstain must
not pass judgment
on those who eat;
for God has
welcomed them.

Rom. 14:4 Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own Lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Rom. 14:5 ¶ Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds.

Rom. 14:6 Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God.

Rom. 14:22 The faith that you have, have as your own conviction before God. Blessed are those who have no reason to condemn themselves because of what they approve.

Rom. 14:23 But those who have doubts are condemned if they eat, because they do not act from faith; for whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.

Rom. 15:14 ¶ I myself feel confident about you, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another.

Rom. 15:15 Nevertheless on some points I have written to you rather boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God

Rom. 14:12 So then, each of us will be

accountable to God.

Rom. 14:13 ¶ Let us

therefore no longer pass
judgment on one

another, but resolve

instead never to put a

stumbling block or

hindrance in the way of another.

Rom. 14:14 I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean.

Rom. 14:15 If your brother or sister is being injured by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not let what you eat cause the ruin of one for whom Christ died.

Rom. 14:16 So do
not let your
good be spoken
of as evil.

Rom. 14:22 The faith that you have, have as your own conviction before God. Blessed are those who have no reason to condemn themselves because of what they approve.

Rom. 14:23 But those who have doubts are condemned if they eat, because they do not act from faith; for whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.

Rom. 15:1 ¶ We who are strong ought to put up with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

Rom. 15:2 Each of us must please our neighbor for the good purpose of building up the neighbor.

Rom. 15:3 For Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."

Rom. 15:4 For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope.

Rom. 15:5 May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus,

Rom. 15:6 so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Rom. 1:16 ¶ For I am not ashamed of the gospel; it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who has faith, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

Rom. 1:17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed through faith for faith; as it is written, "The one who is righteous will live by faith."
