Eccl. 1:12 ¶ I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem,

Eccl. 1:13 applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with.

Eccl. 2:11 Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had spent in doing it, and again, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

Eccl. 2:12 ¶ So I turned to consider wisdom and madness and folly; for what can the one do who comes after the king? Only what has already been done.

Rev. 12:1 ¶ A great portent appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

Rev. 12:2 She was pregnant and was crying out in birthpangs, in the agony of giving birth.

Rev. 12:5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. But her child was snatched away and taken to God and to his throne;

Rev. 12:3 Then another portent appeared in heaven: a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads.

Rev. 12:4 His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born.

Rev. 5:1 ¶ Then I saw in the right hand of the one seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals;

Rev. 5:2 and I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?”

Rev. 5:3 And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it.

Rev. 5:4 And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

Rev. 4:11 "You are worthy, our Lord and God,
to receive glory and honor and power,
for you created all things,
and by your will they existed and were created."

Rev. 5:5 Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.”

Rev. 5:6 ¶ Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

Rev. 5:9 They sing a new song:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation;

Rev. 5:12 singing with full voice,

“Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered
to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”

Rev. 5:13 Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing,

“To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!”

Rev. 4:8 And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and inside.

Day and night without ceasing they sing,

“Holy, holy, holy,

the Lord God the Almighty, who was and is and is to come.”

Rev. 4:11 "You are worthy, our Lord and God,
to receive glory and honor and power,
for you created all things,
and by your will they existed and were
created."

Rev. 5:9 They sing a new song:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals,

for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation;

Rev. 5:10 you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign on earth.”

Rev. 5:12 singing with full voice,

“Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered
to receive power and wealth and wisdom
and might and honor and glory and
blessing!”

Rev. 5:13 Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing,

“To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!”

Rev. 4:9 And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to the one who is seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever,

Rev. 4:10 the twenty-four elders fall before the one who is seated on the throne and worship the one who lives forever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing

Rev. 5:7 He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne.

Rev. 5:8 When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

Rev. 5:9 They sing a new song:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation;

Heb. 10:12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God,"

“Satan’s purpose is to bring about an eternal separation between God and man. But in Christ, we became more closely united to God than if we had never fallen.”

Rom. 5:6 ¶ For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

Rom. 5:7 Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die.

Rom. 5:8 But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Rom. 5:9 Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God.

Rom. 5:10 For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.
