Heb. 7:23 ¶ Furthermore, the former priests were many in number because they were prevented by death from continuing in office,
Heb. 7:24 but he holds his priesthood permanently because he continues forever.

Heb. 7:25 Consequently, he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

Heb. 7:26 ¶ For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.

Heb. 7:27 Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself.

Heb. 8:5 They offer worship in a sanctuary that is a sketch and shadow of the heavenly one, just as Moses was warned when he was about to erect the tent. For, God said, "See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown you on the mountain."

Heb. 10:1 ¶ Since the law has only a shadow of the good things to come and not the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered year after year, make perfect those who approach.

Heb. 10:1 ¶ Since the law has only a shadow ...it can never...make perfect those who approach.

Heb. 10:10 And it is by God's will that we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.
