

“Do You Know What I Have Done to You?..”

John 12:36 While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become children of light." ¶ After Jesus had said this, he departed and hid from them.

Luke 22:24 ¶ A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest.

Luke 22:25 But he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors.

Luke 22:26 But not so with you; rather the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves.

Luke 22:8 So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover meal for us that we may eat it."

John 13:2 The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper

John 13:3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God,

John 13:4 got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself.

John 13:5 Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him.

John 13:6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

John 13:7 Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

John 13:8 Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me."

John 13:9 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!"

John 13:10 Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you."

John 10:27 My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me.

John 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand.

John 10:29 What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand.

John 13:12 ¶ After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you?”

John 13:13 You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am.

John 13:14 So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

John 13:15 For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.

John 13:16 Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them.

John 13:17 If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

Psa. 41:9 Even my bosom friend in whom I trusted,
who ate of my bread, has lifted
the heel against me.

Psa. 41:4 ¶ As for me, I said, "O
LORD, be gracious to me;
heal me, for I have sinned against
you."

John 13:18 I am not speaking of all of you; I know whom I have chosen. But it is to fulfill the scripture, 'The one who ate my bread has lifted his heel against me.'

John 13:19 I tell you this now, before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe that I am he.

John 13:26 Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot.

John 13:27 After he received the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, "Do quickly what you are going to do."

John 13:28 Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him.

John 13:29 Some thought that, because Judas had the common purse, Jesus was telling him, “Buy what we need for the festival”; or, that he should give something to the poor.

John 13:30 So, after receiving the piece of bread, he immediately went out. And it was night.

Psa. 41:4 ¶ As for me, I said, "O
LORD, be gracious to me;
heal me, for I have sinned against
you."
